Information About the Service

What is the service? Opticomm is a broadband service for delivering high-speed Internet to Australian residential and business customers via fixed line infrastructure such as fibre to the premises.

This service is not available in all areas. Visit www.opticomm.com.au/check-your-address/ to see if your address is available.

What is required to use this service?

- You will need an address listed as being Opticomm-ready.
- You will need an Opticomm-capable modem/router to access the service. In some cases Opticomm may need to install equipment at your premises. A power point may be required, and you will need approval from the building owner for the works to be completed.
- If the premises are in a multi-dwelling building, Opticomm may require access to common areas such as the MDF.

What is Included

- Unlimited data when using the Opticomm service

What is not Included

- Static IP address
- Hardware (e.g. router or modem). We can supply equipment if required, and will send you a quote.
- Where additional internal cabling or “MDF patching” is required, an external third party such as an electrician will need to be engaged at the customer’s expense.
- Dishonour and late payment fees
- Address transfers. If you move to another premises, a new service will be ordered and your current service will be terminated, which may cause a termination fee.

Minimum Term

Plans are month-to-month with no lock-in period. Your service will automatically renew each month unless cancelled before the renewal date.

Other Potential Costs

- If you don’t have a router or modem, one can be supplied at an additional outright cost. We will provide you with a quote for the type of service you have.
- You will need to pay for your own internal cabling if required.
- In some cases, your address may be classed as a subsequent install. When this happens there is a $299 new line fee. We will advise you of this before commencing with the install.

New Development Fee

Opticomm may charge a new development fee if you are the first connection in a newly developed area, or the first connection in an established area where the number of premises has increased: $300 for Class 5 premises, $330 for Class 2 premises without MATV, or $550 for Class 2 premises with MATV.
